ONF

O'Neill Foley,
Chartered Accountants
Patrick's Court,
Patrick Street,
Kilkenny, R95 N28F.

O'Neill Foley, Chartered Accountants and Business Advisors, are expanding.

The firm currently has in excess of 50 professional partners and staff providing a wide and varied range of accounting, audit, tax, wealth management and corporate finance services.

The culture of the firm reflects the young and energetic profile of our team and the entrepreneurial nature of our client base.

To meet our increasing demands for the services we provide, the following positions are currently available.

Qualified Accountant - Work in general practice, including accounting, audit and tax compliance. Continuing professional development is assured by way of incremental experience within the client base and participation in relevant training programmes.

Corporate Finance Consultant - This position will involve working alongside the partners and will encompass equity transactions (both buy and sell), debt fund raising and expert witness assignments.

Tax Consultant - Recognised tax qualification is essential along with at least 2 plus years of relevant experience across a number of tax heads. Ideally the experience should come from a dedicated tax department within a substantial professional organisation with a wide range of exposure to varied transactions.

Graduate Trainee Accountants - Applicants with an honours degree from any discipline will be considered. If you believe you have the enthusiasm and dedication to work in a committed environment, we will provide the structures and training.

Accounting Technicians - Applications are welcome for qualified and trainee technician positions. The work is varied and there is considerable scope for progression both within the firm and throughout our extensive network of clients.

Trainee Financial Advisor - Working in close collaboration with the firm's head of Wealth Management, this position will enable the right candidate to develop appropriate professional qualifications and combine the technical and compliance experience with the trusted advisor client facing element of the role.

Payroll Assistant - Given the position is within a team of dedicated payroll specialists, this role can be adapted to an individual with substantial experience or a trainee with a genuine interest in deepening their experience.

Remuneration for each role will be commensurate with the qualification and experience of each candidate.

If you are interested in any of the above positions, please email your CV in strictest confidence to careers@onf.ie.

Applications close on 21st February 2020

Manufacturing Technologist Degree Apprenticeship, Dungarvan, 2020

GSK - Dungarvan, Co Waterford

Posted Date: Feb 3 2020

Exciting minds with our Manufacturing Technologist Degree Apprenticeship

Education required: Must have/be predicted to achieve 6 Ordinary Level Leaving Certificates at grade 3 or above which must include Maths and English.

Start date: July or September 2020

Assessment centre dates: Week commencing 20th April 2020

Application deadline: 6 March 2020 - We recommend you apply as soon as possible, because we accept ongoing applications and offer positions on a first come, first served basis.

We want you to be motivated and passionate for the Apprenticeship you apply to – we will only accept ONE Apprenticeship application per candidate each year. Please do your research before applying and select the one Apprenticeship you wish to apply to.

Want to solve some of the world's biggest health challenges?

With over 300 years of innovation, we're a science-led global healthcare company that delivers billions of innovative products each year. Join us and help millions of people do more, feel better, live longer.

Achieve your career goals on our apprentice programme

This 3-4 year programme offers you the chance to study towards a Bachelor of Engineering (BEng) in Manufacturing Engineering (FETAC Level 7) while gaining valuable, paid work experience.

You will study the theory of pharmaceutical production, first touch engineering, packaging design and lean manufacturing as well as safety and risk management, fully funded by GSK. You will complete a series of on-site job rotations, learning about the different formulations and the different equipment that makes and packages our pharmaceutical products, putting your learned theory into practice.

You can expect to work both individually (when appropriately trained) and as part of a technical team - taking responsibility for the quality, safety and accuracy of the work you undertake.

What will you do?

- Learning how equipment in the manufacture and packaging of our pharmaceutical products operates
- First touch engineering - root cause analysis and understanding interactions between materials and equipment.
- Learn how to design the perfect packaging solution - from choosing the right materials, identifying storage solutions through to packaging machine design and format.
- Data collection, analysis and trending to identify improvement opportunities in our processes.
- Learning about the functions that support manufacturing (laboratory, engineering, logistics & scheduling)
- Assisting in new product and equipment introductions, carrying out trials and analysing data.
- You will learn about product lifecycle management, technical risk assessment and process and product validation.

If you are offered a role; you will have a buddy or a mentor who will help you to prepare for joining GSK and will be there to offer support and guidance throughout your apprenticeship.

Benefits include:

- A competitive base salary
- An annual bonus
- Benefit programmes benchmarked against industry standards
- A recognition programme to reward exceptional work by you and your team
- Training and Development (including opportunities to attend annual Apprentice development events)
- Access to employee health and well-being programmes
- A fully-sponsored Bachelor of Engineering (BEng)

Get to grips with our recruitment process

Watch the video in the banner at the top of this page and you'll find tips on our website - <https://bit.ly/35EWuBm>

We recommend you apply as soon as possible, because we accept ongoing applications and offer positions on a first come, first served basis.
