Sales Advisors - Multi-Media

Attractive salary package

Tipperary

Starting a career in multi-media Advertising Sales could prove to be your launch pad into a long-term, successful future in the media sector. If you have the communication skills to present well and persuade customers of the immense value of advertising, it could be both highly lucrative and personally rewarding.

About us

Iconic is Ireland's largest independently owned newspaper group, with an unrivalled audience in print, online and mobile. As part of the group's development strategy, we are now seeking Sales Advisors to join the advertising sales team working on the Tipperary Star & Clonmel Nationalist and TipperaryLive.ie.

About the role

As a Sales Advisor you will be responsible for a portfolio of existing customers and for developing new relationships with potential advertisers. As part of an experienced and dedicated sales team you'll be fully supported to learn and understand your role and how to follow and convert sales leads and achieve targets.

About you

This is an excellent opportunity to develop a long-term, successful sales career in the publishing sector. And if you have the communication skills and tenacity to persuade customers of the immense value of advertising, it could be both highly lucrative and personally rewarding. Customer service or call-centre experience would be ideal, but above all else we are seeking ambitious relationship builders with excellent communication skills. Professional, personable and able to inspire others, you'll also need to demonstrate the confidence to hit the ground running.

We offer a competitive salary and massive career progression for the right fit.

DAY SERVICES POSTS

At Carriglea Cairde Services, we provide a comprehensive range of day, residential and respite services to approximately two hundred adults with mild, through to profound, degrees of intellectual disability.

We are currently recruiting for the following positions:

Programme Assistants (Day Services)

Applicants will demonstrate a passion for working with people with intellectual disability and a commitment to supporting them to develop their independence and skills. Programme development will involve working with the service users, their families and other staff to develop a person-centred plan for each individual.

Applicants will be required to support service users with a range of needs. There will be a strong emphasis on developing daily living skills that individuals need to live independently.

Applicants should hold a relevant qualification in community care or social care. Experience of working with people with intellectual disability is an advantage. Excellent communication and organisational skills are required.

A valid Irish driving licence is essential.

Self-Managed Day Services

Applicants must have a passion for working with people with intellectual disability and a commitment to supporting them to develop their independence and skills. Self-managed day services will involve working with the service users, their families and other staff to develop a person-centred plan for each individual.

Candidates must have a relevant driving licence, an RNLI qualification is desirable and a valid Garda clearance will be considered. The successful candidate will be required to work in the implementation of self-managed day services with an agreed framework and promote a continually based socially inclusive model of service.

Waterford & South Tipperary Community Youth Service

WSTCYS is a community-based youth organisation which places active youth participation, volunteerism and community development at the heart of our ethos

Applications are invited for the following post:

Community Youth Worker – Ballybeg Community Youth Project (39 hrs)

Based in the Ballybeg community of Waterford City, the project aims to enable the local community to identify and respond to the needs of young people through the development of a variety of youth work responses as part of an Integrated Youth Service.

Key responsibilities are to:

- Develop and extend existing programmes and responses with young people aged 10 to 24 years
- Increase the level of youth participation in the Project
- Recruit, train, support and work with volunteers to develop a community-led response

The project is supported and funded through the Department of Children, Equality, Disability, Integration & Youth and Waterford Wexford ETB

Ideal candidates for the post, which will commence in September, should demonstrate flexibility, motivation and initiative, have excellent interpersonal, organisational, communication and facilitation skills, be able to engage young people in developmental group work and to build, lead and develop a volunteer team. The successful candidate will be committed to working in partnership with young people, local adults and allied professionals and will be a strong team player. They must have at least 1 year's (ideally 2 years') professional experience of working directly with young people and a recognised qualification in Youth and Community Work or related discipline.

About Music Generation

Music Generation Waterford is part of Music Generation, Ireland's national music education programme initiated by Music Network, co-funded by U2, The Ireland Funds, the Department of Education and Skills. Locally, Music Generation Waterford is funded by Waterford and Wexford Education and Training Board and Waterford Council.

Music Generation Waterford is part of a national partnership programme whose mission is to create inspiring experiences for children and young people through music. Together, we strive to transform children and young people's lives by giving them opportunities to create, play and perform music in their own communities and on their own terms. We work to break down barriers that may otherwise prevent children and young people from experiencing the joy of music making. We believe in the power of music to build confidence and creativity, to nurture leadership and innovation, to promote self-expression, connection and happiness. We want all children and young people to have the opportunity to realise that potential, regardless of circumstance.

The breadth of Music Generation Waterford's high quality performance music education programmes span across a diverse range of settings in Waterford City and County. We work with children and young people in school, community, youth services and music hub settings.
