Waterford & South Tipperary Community Youth Service

WSTCYS is a community-based youth organisation which places active youth participation, volunteerism and community development at the heart of our ethos APPLICATIONS ARE INVITED FOR THE POST OF

Youth Justice Worker (Full-Time)

5-Month Fixed Term Contract January to May 2022

In this post, you will join our team of staff and volunteers in the P.A.C.T. Garda Youth Diversion Project. Based in Waterford, the catchment area of this GYDP is Waterford Inner City, Northern Suburbs, Ferrybank and the surrounding area.

The aim of the Garda Youth Diversion Projects is to respond to the needs of unattached young people aged 12 to 18 years who are involved in and/or at risk of criminal or anti-social behaviour in their catchment areas. The purpose of GYDPs is to assess the needs and risks of the target group, to engage them in a process of learning and development that will enable them to critically examine their own offending and to support them to make positive lifestyle choices that will protect them from involvement in criminal, harmful or socially unacceptable behaviours.

Working closely with other WSTCYS staff on the ground, the Youth Justice Worker will deliver effective youth justice work through a variety of individualised interventions and youth work programmes, developing and estending existing responses (including after hours and some weekend contact) and increasing the level of participation in the Project of young people, volunteers, the wider community and other stakeholders, including building effective working relationships with locally based youth and community groups and relevant statutory organisations.

Funded through the European Social Fund, the Youth Justice Worker will have a particular focus on delivering work in the context of:

- Improving the prospects of sustainable employment by identifying pathways for individual participants towards the labour market
- Enabling participants to access further and second chance education and training apportunities
- Promoting acceptance of diversity in the workplace

Ideal candidates for the post should demonstrate flexibility, motivation and initiative, have excellent interpersonal, organisational, communication and facilitation skills, be strong team players and be committed to creating with others participatory and effective responses to young people's needs and interests. They must have at least 1 year's (ideally 2 years') professional experience of working directly with young people and a recognised qualification in fouth and Community Work or related discipline. Understanding of the principles, practices and working methoda associated with youth justice work would be an advantage.

THE IRISH TIMES GROUP

The Irish Times Group is Ireland's leading independent quality news publishing business.

The core activity of The Irish Times Group has evolved from six-day print publishing to a seven-day multi-platform news publisher with a market-leading position in the development of subscriptions and maximising revenues.

We focus on producing quality content for our readers, providing media solutions for customers and we continue to grow and evolve in a fast-paced changing media landscape.

The Company is owned by The Irish Times Trust and is managed by The Irish Times DAC. In recent years, the Irish Times Group expanded its interests to include the Irish Examiner, The Echo, Regional newspapers and Radio stations in addition to the Citywest print facility, the property website MyHome, ie and Irish Times Training.

Our Media Solutions department has responsibility for advertising solutions, commercial partnerships, events and sponsorship. The department deals with both direct and agency clients across a number of markets. As the Media Solutions departments across the wider group align, the following opportunities have arisen. These roles provide an opportunity to be part of a dynamic and rewarding nationwide media solution for an extensive and diverse client portfolio.

Events and Trade Communications Executive

An exciting opportunity has arisen for an Events and Trade Communications Executive. Working directly with the Media Solutions departments across the Group, the successful candidate will be responsible for the planning and activation of commercial events and will also take the lead on the creation and amplification of relevant trade communications for a business to business audience.

Together with the relevant internal departments, 5/he will develop a schedule for commerciallyled events in person and virtual, which are aligned with the business strategy of the Group. They will co-ordinate with internal stakeholders and the relevant sponsorfs! for each event. Managing the costs, logistics and quality of the events will be a vital part of the role.

The candidate should be able to demonstrate their ability to manage a P&L, deal with 3rd party vendors and how they have previously managed press releases or similar communications that resonate with the market. This role requires someone who has an interest in media trends, good attention to detail, excellent communication skills and a creative approach in delivering solutions.

Senior Media Solutions Account Executive

Applications are invited for the position of Senior Media Solutions Account Executive

Reporting to the Area Manager, the Senior Account Executive will have strong sales skills with proven business development experience, commercial acumen and a client-centric approach. Responsibilities will include maximising advertising sales revenue across our media group, planning client campaigns and budgets, building relationships and showing sharp attention to detail.

The individual should have both experience of digital sales and in presenting directly to clients and agencies. They will be expected to be at ease with engaging with brands at the most senior level and should have a proven track record in doing so. The successful candidate will be a motivated individual who is commercially driven, with strong collaboration and communication skills. They should have a keen interest in the media market and Irish business landscape. A proven ability to create commercial opportunities and meet targets is essential. Candidates will be asked to demonstrate the ability to build a good business network with external clients.

This is an excellent opportunity to gain experience in client services in a fast-paced media group.

Publishing Executive

Applications are invited for the position of Publishing Executive. This role involves dealing with our commercial activities predominantly around native content, special reports and with our Innovation partners.

The successful candidate will work directly with the Media Solutions and Content Studio departments across the wider group. S/he will be responsible for the coordination of all activity related to commercial partners. They will act as a conduit between stakeholders across the group including, sales, marketing, production and relevant editorial departments.

The role will involve managing multiple group and brand-specific projects simultaneously. Sf he will be required to build critical paths, case studies, manage P&Ls and track and report on the success of our native and special reports content. Crucial to the role is a knowledge of media trends and previous experience in leading the planning and activation of multiple projects.

The role holder may have an involvement in sales presentations to new and existing clients. Key skills include excellent organisational skills, ability to prioritise, build relationships and a keen sense of the media market, including experience with social media.

This is an excellent opportunity for someone who would like to gain further experience in both client services and the Business to Business environment in the publishing sector.

Programmatic Account Manager

We are inviting applications for the position of Programmatic Account Manager in our Media

This role will help establish new relationships, while managing existing relationships with a view to maximising digital advertising revenue through programmatic channels. The successful candidate will work closely with our Senior Programmatic Manager and our Agency Sales teams. A minimum of 3+ years in media sales experience is a requirement.

Objectives include growing and developing this important revenue strand while managing and nurturing existing client relationships. The role will involve working closely with our Agency/ Brand & Partnerships team to drive multi-channel sales initiatives and end-to-end client campaign management. An important element of the role is the creation of proposals, meeting agreed deadlines, and working with programmatic managers to ensure client KPIs are met and exceeded.

The selected candidate will be required to identify and deliver new business through in-depth knowledge of our media product, clients, and the market. They will be required to grow partnership opportunities, programmatic packages and creative solutions in response to client briefs and more importantly, pro-active approaches that we will bring to the market. A deep understanding of programmatic advertising is important.

Advertising Operations Executive

We are inviting applications for the position of Advertising Operations Executive.

We are looking for a highly-motivated digital advertising operations executive to join our existing ad ops team. The individual will be responsible for the effective setup, management, optimisation, and reporting of digital advertising across multiple sites owned and represented by The Irish Times Group.

The qualified individual must be able to consistently provide a high level of service, have at least one year of experience with Google Ad Manager (DFP) and an ability to work to tight deadlines. Excellent communication and interpersonal skills are important as the role will regularly liaise with both Internal and external stakeholders. The successful candidate will be responsible for the trafficking and management of digital advertising campaigns and they will be required to provide reports and insights at regular intervals to the sales team or client directly. Good attention to detail and strong working knowledge of Excel and PowerPoint is a key requirement for the successful candidate.

The closing date for applications is Wednesday 24th November 2021.

If you are interested in applying for any of the above positions, please send your CV and cover letter to the Group Human Resources Director, with the job title in the subject line to: hrdept@irishtimes.com.

Salaries for these positions are in accordance with agreed salary scales.

For measures announced in Budget 2022, please click here.

What the Work Placement Experience Programme is

The Work Placement Experience Programme (WPEP) is a 6-month, 30 hour per week voluntary work experience programme. The programme is for jobseekers that are currently getting a qualifying social welfare payment and who have been unemployed for six months (156 days) or more.

The weekly rate of payment is €306.

See the qualifying list in the next section.

If you would like to re-train and gain experience in another type of employment, this programme can help you build new skills and gain work experience. You cannot take a placement where you already have built up experience in the role.

You can work part-time while you are on the programme, provided the part-time work does not impact your placement. The part-time work cannot be with the WPEP host.

COVID-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment

If you are getting the COVID-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment (PUP) and you would like training and work experience in a new work role, the WPEP may be an option for you.

Time spent on PUP may be counted as part of the 6 month (156 day) qualifying criteria for WPEP, but you must transfer to one of the qualifying payments before you can take up a WPEP placement.

How to qualify

To qualify for the Work Placement Experience Programme, you must be a jobseeker:

- aged between 18 and 65 years, and
- on a qualifying scheme for at least 6 months (156 days), and
- currently getting certain social welfare payments

The qualifying payments are:

- Jobseeker's Allowance
- · Jobseeker's Benefit
- Jobseeker's Transitional Payment
- One-Parent Family Payment
- Disability Allowance
- Blind Pension
- Farm Assist
- Jobseeker's Benefit for the Self-Employed

Time spent on the schemes below may be counted as part of the 6 month (156 day) qualifying criteria. You must transfer to a Jobseekers' payment before you can take up the placement.

- COVID-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment
- Community Employment Programme
- Back to Education Allowance
- Youthreach
- Springboard
- Solas Training Programmes
- TÚS Community Work Placement Initiative
- Rural Social Scheme

Jobseekers who are currently getting the COVID-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment must qualify and switch to a Jobseekers' payment before they start the programme.

The WPEP Guidelines provide information on participant eligibility or you can check with your local Intreo Centre Case Officer to see if you are entitled to take part in any scheme or placement.

The ideal course for those who wish to pursue a career in the Emergency Services is starting in Clonmel February 7th.

Upon successful completion of their PHECC NQEMT (Pre-Hospital Emergency Care Council National Qualification in Emergency Medical Technology) examinations learners are eligible to apply for an EMT licence, and to be included on the PHECC National Practitioner's Register. Once in receipt of their licence practitioners are then eligible to apply for work as an #EMT with the private or public ambulance services.
